According to J K Rowling the world's most famous single mother, "My personal view is that it's better for my daughter to be brought up in a single parent family than in the context of an unhappy marriage." But there is a significant amount of stigma attached to becoming a single mother, and the practicalities are what give single mothers the most difficulty in lifting themselves out of poverty.

Your struggles, your pain and happiness have allowed you to stand tall and work against all odds to provide the best you can for your children. But after talking to so parents, it's clear that:

- Single mother or not - You want your kids to do better.
- You want them to have the confidence to deal with what life throws at them.
- You want them to rise from the forbidden lower middle to enjoy the full luxuries of life.
- You don't want people looking down on them, and you want your kids to get out of the rat race instead of having to live pay cheque to pay cheque.

But what you want and what will happen in reality are usually two different things. Learn from the mothers of Franklin Roosevelt, Ronald Reagan, Bill Clinton and Barack When Obama: asked what was the defining moment. his mother said. "I wanted Obama to have a plan".

You too need a plan for your kids but not just any plan:

You want to give them one key advantage that will shape the rest of their lives. The early advantage used by Billionaires like Warren Buffet, Richard Branson who started young and were able to use time in their favor.

Imagine your kids learning at this age :

Real insights on confidence boosting, Time-tested strategies on how to deal with people, Learning, understanding and practicing seeing opportunities and having the framework to take action instead of just wishful thinking.

Imagine what will happen to their future when at this age, they have the know-how and the grit to start making money as a part time hobby.

The Poverty Mindset might create doubts: "why do you want your kids to make money at this age?" But the real question is, "why not?"

Our research shows :

- You most likely want your kids to be more confident at this age.
- You want them to have higher self-esteem and you want them to be happy.

The reason making-money is taboo because it is the greatest trick the "Rich Devil" has ever pulled. It has convinced us to delay teaching kids about money, delay the practice of starting a business, and teaching kids to live within their means. Why?

Because the "Rich Devil" knows as your kids step into adulthood they will be at disadvantage against the old money kids. They will be stepping into the arena where "who you know" matters, connections matter and money matters.

While the "Rich Devil's" kids become bosses, yours will become employees. While they go on vacation and live the life to the fullest, yours will be making sure they show up to their 9-5 jobs.

Why "Don't teach your kids about money at early age", is the greatest trick "Rich Devil" pulled? The reason is simple. A six year old's mind is a clean slate, (same is true for all kids until they become adults). It is ready to be guided in the best direction possible.

At a young age connections don't matter, "Who you know" doesn't matter. What really counts is "Knowledge" and using it to proactively practice increasing confidence, turning opportunities you see into realities by taking actions. While the "Rich Kids" are waiting for their inheritance, yours will be creating theirs.

Success is a combination of confidence, self-esteem, knowledge, support and "Practice". Think about it, two kids - one is trained to turn ideas into successful business and had the confidence to do it, compared to the other who waits until he is an adult to face the realities of life. Who will do better?

What's more, if you truly want your kids to accumulate riches and do better in life, waiting until they finish their education is sure way to put them into the rat race.

The reality is simple: the more your kids learn at an early age, the more time they will have to practice, and the more they practice, just like any other habit, the better they will do in the game of life.

As a parent, you are trying to make sure your kids do well in life,

And you Can do it!

The decision you will make today, will decide if they are part of the rat race or if the race starts and ends, where your kids are standing. The secret of every self-made successful person is that at one time or another, usually after a series of setbacks or losses, he or she claims: "I'm going to get rich." They make a conscious decision to accumulate wealth.

If you want your kids to become financially sound, you also have to make a conscious decision to give them the early advantage: "I'm going to make sure my kids become self-made successes". Once you make this decision, apply sound, tested strategies, and stick to it, you can succeed.

If the "Rich Devil" is still trying to convince you to wait until your kids become older, click to see how over 600 parents just like you are not listening to him.

Close your eyes and go over your life to date, and you will be able to see "defining moments all along": the moments, which described your life—you're most painful and happy moments. This also is one of those defining moments.

You landed on this page for a reason. The only thing left for you to do is to make a decision: "Do you want to give your kids the early advantage" to never enter the rat race? If the answer is "Yes", then don't put it off to tomorrow.
