your kids at disadvantage.

DEFER THE DECISION

Related to your Kids

FUTURE

Most parents are up to par when it comes to taking care of their kids' immediate needs such as:

- Putting food on the table.
- Putting roof over their head.
- If they are sick, taking them to the best doctors.
- Putting them in the best schools we can afford.

But their future needs are left in the hands of others including school, college, university, and in the hands of the kids themselves.

When you ask someone what they want their kids to be, Rich Devil trained them to say, “anything they want to be”. In a sly way, he tells us to defer this decision to future, let them figure it out for themselves and let the system, which is built to produce workers, help them.

We believe in it so much that, there are all kinds of fee-paying schools to cater to every segment of parents.

The 2nd biggest trick Rich Devil pulls: Gets you to defer the decision related to your kids to the future.

This is what the Rich Devil does, but for his own kids, he makes those decisions now.

- He gets them to come to his meetings.
- He gets them to come up with ideas and shows them how to negotiate.
- He teaches them how to talk to people.
- He shows them the value of owning a business and owning property, but most importantly, he teaches them to never work for anyone but instead become a boss.
- He knows the easy life is when you are the creator who creates things, who turns ideas into profitable business and sells things, but he doesn't want your kids to have the same.

What he wants for your kids:

He wants your kids to only become consumers, buyers, and employees, who live pay-cheque to pay-cheque and live by the rules defined by their bosses.

Why?

Because he knows, if you don't defer the future decision of your kids to future, your kids will absolutely do better in life. Your kids will become the biggest competitors of his kids. Your children knowing how to win, will not only win but you have given your kids other values: the values to help, the values to do good in this world, the values to make the world a better place.

He knows “money only makes you do more of what you are”. If your kids become rich and they are good, kind and giving souls, they will do exactly that, and be kind, give in charity and live a fulfilling life.

The reality is simple: Don't let the Rich Devil sabotage your kids' success by delaying the decision of their future “to the future”, or worst to a system that is built to produce workers, teaches you to stand in line, and trains you to become part of the rat race.

When you make a conscious decision to get them trained for the “Game of Life” at this age, by learning to see opportunities and having the knowledge to take action, they will become the best version of themselves.

Imagine the good they will do to you, your family, community and the world. But will they be able to help themselves first and then the world?

Don't let the Rich Devil convince you to defer the decision of your kids' future "to the future".
